

Helping you make informed business decisions!

Businesses are increasingly using performance management and business intelligence together to help drive process improvements and create an effective information flow within their companies. Our Knowledge Solutions Consultants leverage its extensive business experience coupled with Hyperion System 9 BI Platform to provide operational insights that deliver measurable benefits back to the organization..

Our experience with Hyperion System 9 unlocks the products robust enterprise reporting capabilities, it also provides general-purpose procedural programming functionality useful for high-volume database/file access and updates. Knowledge Solutions consultants provide an understanding of the application in a manner that is meaningful to your operational and financial professionals. Many of our consultants have a professional background in finance and accounting while supporting Hyperion applications for over a decade.

Knowledge Solutions adds immediate value to your Hyperion Applications by delivering:

- OLAP Cube design, implementation, and support
- Report design, development and implementation
- Web-based dashboards and performance scorecards
- Large scale report deployment
- ERP and other key business data reporting
- Data Warehouse and ETL creation and support
- Effective project management and on-time delivery

Knowledge Solutions Hyperion Consulting includes:

- Industry and business intelligence expertise necessary to provide the proper guidance for your project.
- Assessments of your current state reporting and information delivery system.
- SQR generated presentation-quality reports for distribution through the web or via various file formats.
- Design, development and implementation of Dashboards and Performance Scorecards.
- Consolidation and Integration of meaningful data from multiple sources into your Hyperion Analytic Solution.
- One-on-one consultation and knowledge transfer to provide you with the understanding needed to support your functional and technical reporting needs.
- Proven OLAP methodologies to reduce cost and gain project efficiencies.

Hyperion Web Analysis

Hyperion Interactive Reporting

Hyperion Financial Reporting

Hyperion SQL Production Reporting

*All trademarks are the property of their respective owners.